Writing re opening and selling of alcohol at 42 st michaels road, Aldershot.
Our concerns that this is a family residential area with a lot of elderly vulnerable people.
Selling of alcohol between 8am and 11pm [REDACTED] is likely to cause a nuisance and anti social behaviour especially as drug dealing regularly occurs outside this property which has been reported to the police.
Also there is limited parking and out of hours people are liable to park across the junction on double yellow lines.

Dear Sir

As my role as a police officer within the Police Alcohol Reduction Team I have been notified of your premise licence application for the above address. I have noted your operating schedule and your conditions that you have provided. However I have suggested the attached conditions as they are worded slightly differently than what you have provided and I have also added another "right to work" condition for you to consider.

Please look at the attached document and if you are happy and agree please reply to me and I will send to the relevant council.

Many thanks
