1.0 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This report concerns an application for a premises licence made under section 17 of the Licensing Act 2003 (the 'Act'). A representation has been received in respect of the application and invokes a statutory requirement to hold a hearing with members.
- 1.2 The report provides details of, and background to the application, and should be read in conjunction with the Council's licensing policy and Secretary of State's guidance. This, together with information obtained at the hearing should be used to determine the application.

2.0 BACKGROUND

- 2.1 An application for a premises licence was submitted on 13th September 2026 by Artisan Spoon Ltd. in respect of a premises known as Little Dessert Shop, 17a Union Street, Aldershot, Hampshire, GU11 1EP. A map showing the location of the premises is given at appendix A.

2.2 Nature of the application

- 2.3 The application seeks to allow late night refreshment only. A copy of the application form is given at appendix B. Whilst the initial application was to provide late night refreshment until 5am each day, the applicant has amended the application, on liaison with the responsible authority for the prevention of public nuisance, to reduce the hours and agree conditions to be added to the licence should it be granted. A copy of this agreement is given at appendix C.

2.4 Advertising of the application

- 2.5 I can confirm that each responsible authority (as specified in the Act) has received a copy of the application. Similarly, the application was advertised by the applicant in accordance with the requirements of the legislation both at the premises and in a local newspaper. The last date for representations was given as the 11th October 2026.

3.0 REPRESENTATION(S)

- 3.1 One representation was received in respect of the application from a member of the public. A copy of the representation is given at appendix D.

3.2 Relevance of Representation(s)

- 3.3 To be eligible to be considered, the Act requires a(ny) representation(s) to be 'relevant'. A 'relevant representation' is one that has been made by a responsible authority, any other person, a body representing such persons or a Member of the relevant licensing authority (i.e. elected councillors). Similarly, representations must not be frivolous or vexatious and must be about the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of the licensing objectives.

The licensing objectives are defined in the Act and include -

- (a) the prevention of crime and disorder;
- (b) ensuring public safety;
- (c) the prevention of public nuisance; and
- (d) the protection of children from harm.

Against the above criteria, the representation is considered relevant in this case, as it concerns the licensing objectives regarding the prevention of public nuisance and the prevention of crime and disorder.

4.0 OTHER DATA PROTECTION ISSUES

- 4.1 In accordance with data protection requirements, any personal details, addresses, contact details and/or signatures submitted on any application, representation or other relevant document etc. have been redacted.

5.0 DETERMINATION

- 5.1 Further to the receipt of relevant representations and, in accordance with the Act and the Council's scheme of delegation, the Sub-Committee is asked to determine the application.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Dear Licensing Team,

I'm writing to raise concerns about Little Dessert Shop and Dixy chicken late-night licence application and the impact this could have on local residents. At approximately Friday 11:23 pm, I took the attached photograph showing two customers eating waffles inside the shop and another at the tills ordering. We also witnessed waffles and crepes being prepared and served after 11 pm. I would like the council to investigate whether they are permitted to serve hot food at this time and whether they are complying with their current licensing conditions.

Since the shop opened, we've noticed more groups of young people hanging around the area, which has raised concerns about antisocial behaviour and disturbance. As local residents, we are worried that extending late-night trading hours could make the situation worse.

With both Little Dessert Shop and the nearby Dixie potentially applying for late-night licences, there is a real concern about the amount of late-night activity in the area and the effect this could have on residents' safety, peace and quality of life.

I understand businesses need to operate, but this should not come at the expense of the local community. I hope the council will carefully consider these concerns, investigate the evidence provided and take them into account before making a decision on the application.

Please confirm receipt of this email and let me know whether these concerns will be considered as part of the licensing process.

Kind regards,

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Dear Licensing Team,

I'm writing to raise concerns about Little Dessert Shop and Dixy chicken late-night licence application and the impact this could have on local residents. At approximately Friday 11:23 pm, I took the attached photograph showing two customers eating waffles inside the shop and another at the tills ordering. We also witnessed waffles and crepes being prepared and served after 11 pm. I would like the council to investigate whether they are permitted to serve hot food at this time and whether they are complying with their current licensing conditions.

Since the shop opened, we've noticed more groups of young people hanging around the area, which has raised concerns about antisocial behaviour and disturbance. As local residents, we are worried that extending late-night trading hours could make the situation worse.

With both Little Dessert Shop and the nearby Dixie potentially applying for late-night licences, there is a real concern about the amount of late-night activity in the area and the effect this could have on residents' safety, peace and quality of life.

I understand businesses need to operate, but this should not come at the expense of the local community. I hope the council will carefully consider these concerns, investigate the evidence provided and take them into account before making a decision on the application.

Please confirm receipt of this email and let me know whether these concerns will be considered as part of the licensing process.

Kind regards,
