LICENSING REPORT NO. OS2013

DETERMINATION OF AN APPLICATION FOR A PREMISES LICENCE
308-310 FERNHILL ROAD, FARNBOROUGH GU14 9EE

1.0 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. This report concerns an application for a premises licence made under section 17 of the Licensing Act 2003 (the 'Act'). Representations have been received in respect of the application and invoke a statutory requirement to hold a hearing with members.
- 1.2. The report provides details of, and background to the application, and should be read in conjunction with the Council's licensing policy and Secretary of State's guidance. This, together with information obtained at the hearing should be used to determine the application.

2.0 BACKGROUND

- 2.1. An application for a premises licence was submitted on 24th June 2020 by Mr Kulraj Singh Madaan, in respect of a premises known as 308-310 Fernhill Road, Farnborough GU14 9EE. A map of the area showing the general location of the premises is given at appendix A.
- 2.2. Nature of the application
- 2.3. The application seeks the retail sale of alcohol for consumption off the premises between 08:00am to 23:00pm on Sundays to Thursdays and 08:00am to 23:30pm on Fridays and Saturdays. A copy of the application is given at appendix B.
- 2.4. Advertising of the application
- 2.5. I can confirm that each responsible authority (as specified in the Act) has received a copy of the application. Similarly, the application was advertised by the applicant in accordance with the requirements of the legislation both at the premises and in a local newspaper. The last date for representations was given as the 22nd July 2020.

3.0 REPRESENTATION(S)

3.1 Three representations were received in respect of the application. Two were from responsible authorities namely, the Licensing Authority and Trading Standards and the other was from a member of the public. Copies of the representations are given at appendix C, marked C1 to C3 respectively.

3.2. Relevance of Representation(s)

3.3. To be eligible to be considered, the Act requires a(ny) representation(s) to be 'relevant'. A 'relevant representation' is one that has been made by a responsible authority, any other person, a body representing such persons or a Member of the relevant licensing authority (i.e. elected councillors). Similarly, representations must not be frivolous or vexatious and must be about the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of the licensing objectives.

3.4. The licensing objectives are defined in the Act and include -

- (a) the prevention of crime and disorder;
- (b) ensuring public safety;
- (c) the prevention of public nuisance; and
- (d) the protection of children from harm.

3.5. Against the above criteria, the representations are considered relevant in this case, as they have been made by a responsible authority and other persons and concern the licensing objectives.

4.0 OTHER DATA PROTECTION ISSUES

4.1 In accordance with data protection requirements, any personal details, addresses, contact details and/or signatures submitted on any application, representation or other relevant document etc. have been redacted.

5.0 DETERMINATION

5.1. Further to the receipt of the relevant representations and, in accordance with the Act and the Council's scheme of delegation, the Sub-Committee is asked to determine the application.

6.0 RELEVANT CONSIDERATIONS

6.1. Licensing Objectives

6.2. In considering the application the licensing authority must have regard to the promotion of the licensing objectives given at paragraph 3.4 of this report.

6.3. Licensing Policy and Secretary of States Guidance

6.4. The licensing authority must also have regard to its statement of licensing policy and any guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 182 of the Act.

6.5. Details of the parts of the policy and guidance that may be relevant to this application are given in appendix D to this report.

7.0 OPTIONS

7.1 In determining this application, the Sub-Committee may take any of the following steps as it considers appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives; namely -

- (a) to grant the licence as applied for*; or
- (b) to exclude from the scope of the licence any of the licensable activities to which the application relates*; or
- (c) to refuse to specify a person as the premises supervisor; or
- (d) to reject the whole or part of the application.

\ Subject to any relevant mandatory conditions, amendments agreed by the applicant and/or such other conditions that are consistent with the operating schedule which, with the exception of mandatory conditions, may be modified (which may include the alteration or omission of a condition or the addition of any new condition(s)) to such extent as may be necessary to promote the licensing objectives.*

8.0 RECOMMENDATION(S)

8.1. The Sub-Committee is asked to determine the application having regard to -

- (a) the contents of this report;
- (b) any additional information obtained from the hearing;
- (c) the Council's licensing policy;
- (d) guidance issued by the Secretary of State; and
- (e) the promotion of the licensing objectives.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Dear Sir / Madam,

THE LICENSING ACT 2003

Representation in respect of an application for a premises licence – 308
– 310 Fernhill Road, Farnborough, Hampshire, GU14 9EE

Individual making representations:

My name is Shelley Marie Bowman and I am employed as Principal Licensing Officer for Rushmoor Borough Council. I have been employed in this capacity for approximately 10 years, and prior to this as a Licensing Officer for approximately 3 years. I hold a Certificate of Higher Education in Licensing Law, a BIIAB National Certificate for Personal Licence holders, a BIIAB National Certificate for Licensing Practitioners and a BIIAB National Certificate for Licensing Practitioners (Gambling).

Capacity and authority of individual making representations:

I am making this representation in the capacity and embodiment of a responsible authority as defined in Section 13(4) of the Licensing Act 2003 (as amended by Section 103 of the Police Reform & Social Responsibility Act 2011). For this purpose, and as outlined above, I represent the relevant licensing authority in whose area the above-named premises are situated.

Relevance of representations:

As a responsible authority, I am making this representation in accordance with the procedure for an application for a premises licence detailed in Section 17 of the Licensing Act 2003. I am also making this representation at this time and in respect of the above-named premises as it is my opinion that the granting of the premises licence will undermine the licensing objective the prevention of crime and disorder. The grounds for this opinion are outlined below.

Nature and grounds of representation:

The applicant for the premises licence in this case, previously held a licence for the premises at 310 Fernhill Road (2009 – 2011), which permitted the sale of alcohol for consumption off the premises. He was licence holder along with a Mr Harmohan Singh Madhan. The premises licence was revoked by the Licensing sub-committee in 2011, following an application for review of the licence submitted by Hampshire Constabulary.

Whilst I will not include all of the submissions and evidence in respect of the previous review application, I have attached the grounds for review detailed on the application by the Hampshire Constabulary Licensing Officer, marked as EXHIBIT 1 and the part of decision notice giving the grounds for the decision to revoke the licence as EXHIBIT 2, by way of providing an overview as to the way in which the business was operated during that time.

Although, this is a new application, which must be dealt with on its own merits, the way the business was previously operated is an indication of the way in which it may be operated if this application was granted, and therefore the incidents leading to the review are relevant to the promotion of the licensing objectives in this case.

Whilst I note that in this new application, Mr Madaan has included on his operating schedule licence conditions which are designed to deal with the purchase of counterfeit and/or non-duty paid alcohol as follows:

- All goods, including those subject to duty payments i.e. alcohol and tobacco products will be bought from cash and carries only an invoices and they will be available upon request. All alcohol will be purchased from AWRS registered cash and carry or wholesalers.
- No alcoholic drinks or tobacco will be purchased by the premises from unannounced sellers calling at the premises.

I do not believe that the imposition of such conditions will ensure the promotion of the licensing objective, the prevention of crime and disorder. This is because, at the time that the large amounts of counterfeit and non-duty paid alcohol were seized from the premises and the associated lock-up, the activities carried out by Mr Madaan were a crime. He was willing to store and sell non-duty paid and counterfeit alcohol at his shop, and additional licence conditions provide no confidence that he would manage the business responsibly and follow both the law and licence conditions in respect of the products that he sells there.

Relevant Guidance

The Secretary of State's Guidance issued under section 182 of The Licensing Act 2003, states in the section "Reviews arising in connection with crime":

11.25 ..... Where a review follows a conviction, it would also not be for the Licensing Authority to attempt to go beyond any finding by the courts, which should be treated as a matter of undisputed evidence before them.

11.27 There is certain criminal activity which may arise in connection with licensed premises which should be treated particularly seriously. These are the use of the licensed premises.....for the sale or storage of smuggled tobacco and alcohol.

Whilst this relates to a review, and this particular application is for a new premises licence, the guidance shows the seriousness with which the issue is expected to be taken.

The Council's statement of licensing policy states:

1.3 However while we recognise that there are many hardworking licence holders within the industry, who are rightly proud of the service they provide, any service to the public may be subject to abuse or be a target for the less scrupulous in society. This may include those who might use their position to exploit the public, for example by supplying illicit alcohol.....

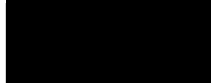

3.40 The licensing authority expects those providing licensable activities to fully comply with all other relevant legislation (e.g. Health & Safety) applicable to the premises and the activities carried on there. The Licensing Authority will therefore normally seek to avoid duplication with other regulatory regimes in exercise of it's functions. However, non-compliance with other legislation and associated agency requirements, may be taken into account insofar as it provides an indicator of the management of the premises of the wider picture and/or confidence in management to suitably promote the licensing objectives.

Therefore indicating that the issues raised are specifically relevant to the promotion of the licensing objectives.

Summary of recommended steps / conditions / actions to be taken:

Given that the secretary of state's guidance states that the crime committed should be taken particularly seriously, the previous offences were related to the shop concerned, included significant amounts of illicit alcohol and Hampshire County Council Trading Standards have confirmed in their representation that Mr Madaan was convicted of the offence(s), I am of the opinion that granting a premises licence for the sale of alcohol to Mr Madaan would undermine the licensing objective, the prevention of crime and disorder as I have little confidence of Mr Madaan's suitability to run a premises of this nature. Therefore, I do not believe that there are any steps other than refusal of the application for a premises licence which will ensure the promotion of the licensing objectives.

Yours faithfully,

Shelley Bowman
Principal Licensing Officer
Operational Services

EXHIBIT 1

Please state the grounds for review which must be based on one or more of the licensing objectives together with supporting information:

Fernhill Food and Wine is a small retail grocery store, in a parade of 5 other retail units of a similar size, in a densely populated area of Farnborough. The store currently holds a premises licence for the sale/supply of alcohol for consumption off of the premises only.

On Friday 24th June 2011 an operation was carried out by officers from the Hampshire Constabulary, Hampshire County Council Trading Standards (TS) and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC), at Fernhill Food and Wine. Representatives from each of these agencies attended the store at approximately 1130 hours, and spoke to Kulraj Madaan, who stated that he was the store manager. A search of the premises was then commenced.

During this search a quantity of counterfeit and duty free alcohol, and counterfeit DVDs was located and seized by HMRC officers and TS officers.

A van was then located at the premises which was identified as being owned by Kulraj Madaan. A search of this van revealed further quantities of counterfeit and duty free alcohol, and a quantity of counterfeit 'duty paid stamps', examples of which had been found attached to the bottles of duty free alcohol in an attempt to give the appearance that the duty had been paid and that the alcohol was being offered for sale legitimately.

A number of the officers involved in the search then left the premises with Kulraj Madaan and attended a storage unit at the Lok 'n Store storage facility in Hawley Lane, Farnborough.

At this location Kulraj Madaan directed the officers to a storage unit within the facility which was secured with a padlock. He then provided a key which unlocked the padlock and allowed the officers to enter and search the unit, which was similar in size to a residential single garage. A search of this unit revealed further considerable quantities of counterfeit and duty free alcohol.

The items of counterfeit and duty free alcohol which were found in Fernhill Food and Wine, in the storage unit at Lok 'n Store and in the van belonging to Kulraj Madaan, were seized by officers from HMRC. Due to the considerable quantities of alcohol involved, a 7.5 tonne van was required to remove all of the seized items.

RESTRICTED

It is the policy of HMRC that when they are conducting operations of this nature, they seize only items that they know to be counterfeit or duty free. In the event that they only suspect or believe that the item is counterfeit or duty free, they would not make a seizure.

In total on this date the following quantities of counterfeit and/or duty free alcohol were seized -

1206.75 litres of wine

888 litres of beer

671.70 litres of spirits

The estimated value of the seized alcohol is approximately £16,500.

A number of photographs were taken at the various locations involved in this operation, and have been produced as exhibits by PC 20723 Court.

Copies of the following photographic exhibits have been attached to this review to assist the licensing sub-committee in making their decision -

SJC/FFW/99/AE - Photographs of seizures made

SJC/FFW/99/AB - Counterfeit Aros vodka

SJC/FEW/99/X - Seized wine

SJC/FFW/99/T - Packs of seized items

It is the view of the Hampshire Constabulary that the licence holders of Fernhill Food and Wine have failed to uphold the licensing objectives of the prevention of crime and disorder and public safety.

The sale of counterfeit alcohol results in the supply of an inferior product, the contents of which have not been produced to the higher standards of the genuine manufacturer and therefore are not to the standard that is expected of the paying customer who is ultimately being misled at the time of the sale. Counterfeit alcohol also carries a risk to the health of the customer, who may not be aware that the product is not genuine and therefore its contents could be very harmful as the necessary quality control measures are unlikely to be in place due to its sub-standard method of manufacturing.

The significant quantity of duty free alcohol that was seized at the various locations that are controlled by the licence holders, and the seizure of the counterfeit 'duty paid stamps' demonstrates a calculated intention to evade the legal obligation of all individuals and business within the United Kingdom to pay tax, and demonstrates a disregard for the law.

AMEND THE LICENSING ACT 2003

It is the belief of the Hampshire Constabulary that the conduct of the holders of the premises licence for Fernhill Food and Wine has shown that they are unable to meet the required standard and responsibility to run a licensed premises.

For this reason we do not believe that the imposition of any conditions on the premises licence would be appropriate in this case and we urge the sub-committee to take only one course of action, namely the revocation of this premises licence.

EXHIBIT 2

DECISION

To revoke premises licence no. 09/00210/LAPRE held in respect of Fernhill Food and Wine, No. 310 Fernhill Road, Farnborough.

REASONS

The Sub-Committee is satisfied, on a balance of probabilities, that this is necessary for the promotion of the licensing objective of the prevention of crime and disorder.

In coming to its decision, the Sub-Committee has taken into account:

- The Licensing Act Section 52, which states that having regard to the application and any relevant representations, it must take such steps it considers necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives;
- The Secretary of State's guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003, particularly paragraphs 11.24 and 11.26-27. It is the Sub-Committee's duty to take steps to promote the licensing objectives in the interests of the wider community and not those of the individual holder of the premises licence;
- The Council's Statement of Licensing Policy 2010 – 2011; and
- Written and oral evidence presented to the hearing.

In relation to the Police evidence, the Sub-Committee found that much of it was uncontested and that large quantities of alcohol on which no duty had been paid, or counterfeit, were seized during the raid in June.

The Sub-Committee believed that the DVDs found under the counter and in the lock up were counterfeit and would have been available for sale.

The evidence of Trading Standards corroborated that of the Police; it was accepted that the results of the three tests carried out by the public analyst showed the samples to be satisfactory, but one test result was not satisfactory and showed that the sample tested was not genuine vodka.

In relation to the statement on behalf of the licence holder, the Sub-Committee noted that there was still no evidence of proof of purchase of the alcohol, although the licence holder had said that there were receipts for purchases of food.

The Sub-Committee did not accept that Mr Madaan was unaware of the false duty paid stickers or that some of it was counterfeit.

Some of the steps now being put forward by Mr Madaan should have been taken from the outset of his management of the premises.

The Sub-Committee had not taken into account some of the evidence put forward by PC Court in his statement, that was not related to the licensable activities being undertaken. This included the matters relating to hygiene and fire extinguishers. It was noted that the petition provided by the licence holder did not deal with the crime and disorder licensing objective and a number of the signatories lived beyond the vicinity of the premises. The Sub-Committee had, therefore, given it little weight.

The Sub-Committee went on to consider the alternative courses of action available to it on this review and, firstly, felt that an informal warning was inappropriate.

The Sub-Committee then considered whether to modify the conditions of the licence but, having heard the representations of Trading Standards and the Police, had considered that the proposed conditions would not prevent such a matter recurring.

Next, the Sub-Committee considered whether it would be appropriate to exclude a licensable activity from the scope of the licence but, as there was only one licensable activity, this would not be relevant.

The Sub-Committee then considered whether to remove the designated premises supervisor (DPS) but there was no evidence that the DPS had had any involvement in the illegal activities.

Next, the Sub-Committee considered whether suspending the licence for up to three months would be appropriate in this case. From the accounts presented, it was difficult to accept that the licence holder was in serious financial difficulties. The Sub-Committee was not persuaded that they were accurate, having heard that cash was used to buy goods and pay staff. It was felt that a suspension would not be effective and that there was a strong possibility that illegal activities would recur if a difficult financial situation presented itself again.

Finally, the Sub-Committee considered the option of revoking the licence. To reflect the seriousness with which it viewed the evidence it had heard in relation to Mr Madaan's practices in running the business, the Sub-Committee believed that revocation had to be seriously considered in the interests of the wider community and that those outweighed Mr Madaan's personal and financial circumstances.

HCC Trading Standards Service wish to make the following Representation

A premise licence at this same address with Kulraj Singh Madaan named as a premise licence holder, was revoked by Rushmoor Borough Council in September 2011.

A search was carried out by Hampshire Constabulary and HCC Trading Standards, supported by officers from HMRC in June 2011, which uncovered around £16,500 worth of counterfeit alcohol and alcohol where the duty had not been paid.

Counterfeit alcohol was also found in a van owned by Kulraj Singh Madaan parked outside the shop, and in a nearby storage unit in Farnborough.

The amounts of counterfeit and unpaid duty alcohol seized were vast in size, including 888 litres of beer and 672 litres of spirits. A 7.5 tonne van was needed to remove the items.

Counterfeit alcohol carries a risk to the health of the consumer, who may not be aware that the product is not genuine and therefore its contents could be very harmful.

It is a matter of public record that in a criminal prosecution brought by Hampshire Constabulary in 2013, Madaan was sentenced to 9 months imprisonment suspended for 2 years; 200 hours community service of unpaid work with £2500 costs awarded to Hampshire Constabulary.

We request that this premise licence should not be granted.

REPRESENTATION – MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC

To whom it might concern,

As an [REDACTED] neighbour of the premises, I would like to voice my objection to the proposed hours of licensing. I would like the authority to consider limiting the licensing hours to 2200 on all days of the week; in an attempt to reduce late night noise and antisocial behavior outside my property.

In the past the police have sent out letters about anti social behavior in the Fernhill Ward; since 04 Jul 2020 there have been at least two cases of antisocial behavior, that I'm aware of, in the vicinity of the applicant's existing licensed premises at 310 Fernhill Road.

On 04 Jul 2020 at around 2310, there was a group of drunk teenagers fighting within 15 meters of the premises, having been refused service at the shop. (See photos below)

On 08 Jul 2020 at around 2200, it appeared the occupants of a vehicle directly outside the shop were taking illicit substances whilst they waited for a customer to come out.

According to the website <https://www.checkmystreet.co.uk/indepth/crimerate/gu14-9ee> there have been 287 police reports relating to antisocial behavior within 1mile of the applicants postcode GU14 9EE in the last 12 months.

Stay Safe

Kind Regards,
